Adaptive Functioning Skills 11 years and older

Student Name:	Date:
Parent:
Please check any item below if it is of concern $()$. Please mark a (+) if this is a strength for the student. Leave blank if it is an average skill.
Communication:Speaks in full sentences	Community Use:Tells time accurately
Stays on topic in conversations	Uses a calendar
 Describes a realistic long-range goal and how he/she will accomplish it Able to relate a story or event in order Vocabulary seems appropriate for age Verbal Communication skills are age appropriate 	Self-Direction:Follows through with tasksAble to complete homework independentlyAble to complete school work in class independentlyKeeps working on a task even when difficultAsks for help when neededCompletes tasks in a reasonable amount of timeControls anger when denied his/her own wayApologizes when appropriateAble to organize and plan tasks Play and Leisure:
Written communication skills are age appropriate
Listening comprehension skills are age appropriate
Self-Care:Takes care of personal hygiene, including bathing, brushing teeth, combing hair
Social Skills:Meets with friends regularly
Has one or more close friend(s)	Shows interest in the activity of peers
Enjoys the company of other children	Able to join groups
Chooses not to say embarrassing things in publicKeeps comfortable distance when talking to others	—Plays simple games which require keeping scores —Participates in extracurricular activity (ex., sports, church-related, music)
Functional Academics: The student performs at the follow Reading:	elow)
Math: Has average reading skills (at grade level) Is below peers (one to two grade levels below) Is somewhat below peers (two to three grade levels b Is significantly below peers (three or more grade levels
Writing: Has average reading skills (at grade level)Is below peers (one to two grade levels below)Is somewhat below peers (two to three grade levels bIs significantly below peers (three or more grade levels	